

7th LATINX PHILOSOPHY CONFERENCE

DATE:

FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 10 AM ET
SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 6 PM ET

LOCATION:

1ST FLOOR EVENT SPACE
(ROOM 102), CHARLES LIBRARY

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

MARIANA ORTEGA
Pennsylvania State University

MANUEL VARGAS
University of California San Diego

DETAILS AND REGISTRATION:

LATINXPHILCONFERENCE.WIXSITE.COM/2023

Sponsors: The Department of Philosophy, College of Liberal Arts at Temple University, Center for the Humanities at Temple University, Greater Philadelphia Philosophical Consortium, and American Philosophical Association

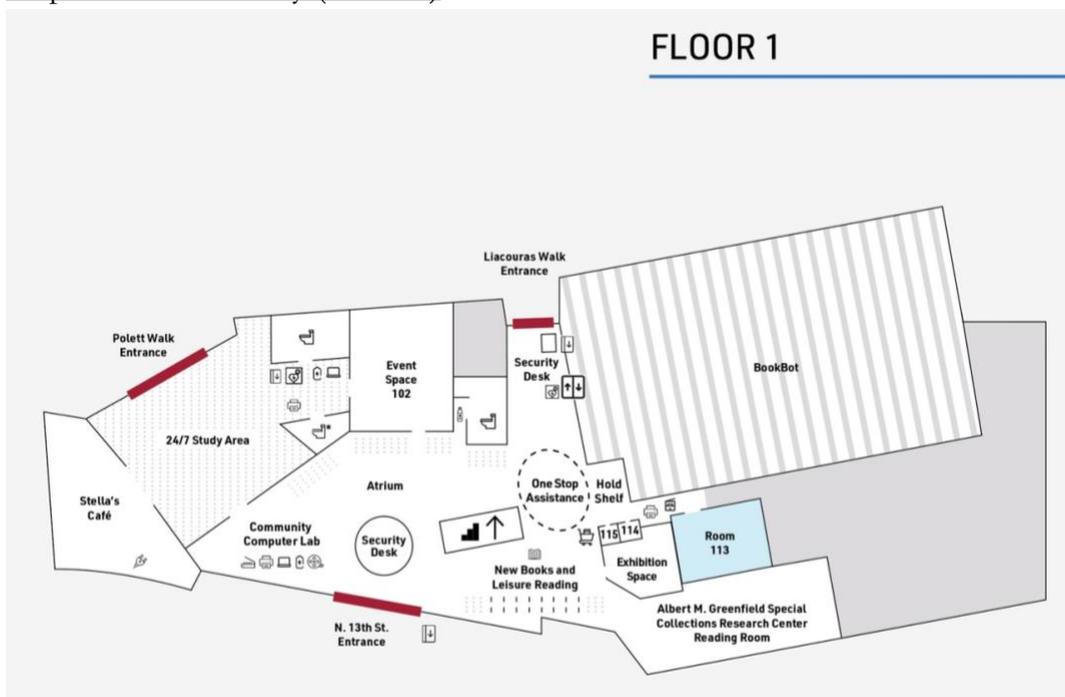

INFORMATION FOR REGISTERED PARTICIPANTS

This conference is a hybrid event. All the sessions and keynote addresses will be held in-person at Temple University and livestreamed on Zoom.

The main in-person venue for the conference is the 1st floor event space (room 102) in Charles Library (1900 N 13th St). We will use Gladfelter Hall (room 107) for the closing event on April 15.

Map of Charles library (1st floor)

If you are attending in person and do not have a Temple ID, you will have to enter Charles Library from either the 13th Street entrance or the Liacouras Walk entrance (see map above). Please bring a government-issued ID to present upon entrance to the building, and the guards will quickly check you off the list of registered conference attendees.

Online attendees will be able to watch all the sessions and keynotes and participate in Q&A via Zoom. You can find the Zoom link and password for each day in the conference program below.

For any questions or concerns, e-mail us at latinphilosophyconference@gmail.com.

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

All times listed are in Eastern Time.

Coffee and tea will be served in the morning sessions and afternoon breaks.

Friday, April 14 (zoom link, passcode: 872438)

Welcoming Remarks (9:45 – 10:00)

Session 1 (10:00 – 10:50)

“Racial Labor, Immigrant Health Disparities, and Affective Injustice”

Julio C. Covarrubias-Cabeza (University of Houston, Clear Lake)

Session 2 (11:00 – 11:50)

“Foreign Natives/Native Foreigners: Language, Citizenship, and the Racialization of Mexicans in the U.S.”

Erika Grimm (Pennsylvania State University)

Lunch Break (12:00 – 13:00)

Lunch will be served to in-person attendees.

Session 3 (13:00 – 13:50)

“The Uses of Anger in Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz’s Autodefensa Espiritual”

Sergio Gallegos-Ordorica (John Jay College of Criminal Justice)

Session 4 (14:00 – 14:50)

“Aztec Philosophy, Europe, and Decoloniality”

Noell Birondo (University of Texas at El Paso)

Session 5 (15:00 – 15:50)

“The Meaning, Dangers, and Critical Potential of “Exteriority” for Decolonial Investigations”

Patricia Cipollitti Rodríguez (CUNY Graduate Center)

Saturday, April 15 (zoom link, passcode: 041877)

Session 6 (10:00 – 12:00)

Panel: “Afro-Latinx Identity, Puerto Rican Resistance and Dominican Philosophy”
Eric Bayruns García (Harvard University & McMaster University), Adam Burgos (Bucknell College), and Edgar Valdez (Saint Peter’s University)

Lunch Break (12:00 – 13:00)

Lunch will be served to in-person attendees.

Session 7 (13:00 – 13:50)

“World-travelling to the Servant’s Quarters: The Limits of Lugones’ Decolonial Feminism”

Jeta Mulaj (Toronto Metropolitan University)

Session 8 (14:00 – 14:50)

“La Facultad: Towards an Active Agency and Bodily Epistemology”
Karina Ortiz Villa (University of California San Diego)

Session 9 (15:00 – 15:50)

“Anticolonial Aesthetics: Silvia Rivera Cusicanqui and Third Cinema”
Miguel Gualdrón Ramírez (University of North Texas)

Break (15:50 – 16:30)

In-person participants will walk together to Gladfelter Hall 107—the room for the last event of the conference.

Keynote Address (16:30 – 18:00)

This event will be held in Gladfelter Hall 107.*

“Anzaldúa’s Conocimiento as Affective Mapping: A Critical Phenomenological Approach”

Mariana Ortega (Pennsylvania State University)