

Conference Goals

The goals of this event are to bring together Latinx philosophers at all levels of their careers to allow them to present their work in progress in a friendly and supportive environment and to enable junior Latinx philosophers to network with their peers and with senior colleagues.

2024 Latinx Philosophy Conference

at John Jay College of Criminal Justice

April 26-27

JOHN
JAY COLLEGE
OF
CRIMINAL
JUSTICE

CU
NY

American
Philosophical
Association

JOHN
JAY COLLEGE
OF
CRIMINAL
JUSTICE
RESEARCH | CU
NY

DAY 1 | April 26 | New Building, Room L2.85

8:00–8:30 AM | Registration

8:30–9:00 AM | Catered Breakfast

9:00–9:50 AM

The Diminished Citizenship of U.S. Citizen Children of Undocumented Migrants

Lori Gallegos, Texas State University

10:00–10:50 AM

Hegel and me

Layla Mayorga, Fordham University

11:00–11:50 AM

The Ontology of Ourselves

Itsue Nayaka-Pérez, CUNY Graduate Center

12:00–1:30 PM | Catered Lunch Break

1:30–2:20 PM

Between Two Worlds: Mario Bunge's Political Philosophy in Light of Andean Ethics

Jorge Lizarzaburu, Southwestern University

3:30–4:20 PM

Beyond Positivism and Anti-Positivism: José Martí on Unity, Autonomy, Race and Education

Juan Carlos Gonzalez

University of California, San Diego

4:30–6:00 PM | Keynote Speaker

A Simple but Powerful Idea about Free Will

Carolina Sartorio, Rutgers University

6:30–9:00 PM | Dinner at The Greek Kitchen

889 Tenth Avenue (Southwest corner of 58th St. and 10th Av.)

DAY 2 | April 27 | New Building, Room L2.85

8:00–8:30 AM | Registration

8:30–9:00 AM | Catered Breakfast

9:00–9:50 AM

Living legality and the irruption of the people: An interpretation of Dussel's legal philosophy of liberation

Juan Sebastian Ospina, Smith College

10:00–10:50 AM

Enrique Dussel, Latin America's Left Turn, and Popular (Re) Founding

Gabriel Vergara, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

11:00–11:50 AM

Journey on Foot: The Philosophical Expedition of Fernando González

Migdalia Arcila, Cornell University

12:00–1:30 PM | Catered Lunch Break

1:30–2:20 PM

Phronetic-Irony, Humor, Satire, and (Feminine) Culture: Rosario Castellanos in Mexican Philosophy

Moraima Arias, University of California, San Diego

2:30–3:20 PM

Latin America, Mestizaje and Aesthetics

Oscar Barragan, Penn State, Berks

4:30–6:00 PM | Keynote Speaker

Liberation Philosophy and the Search for Combative Decoloniality: A Fanonian Approach

Nelson-Maldonado Torres

University of Connecticut, Storrs

6:30–9:00 PM | Dinner at Mee Noodle Shop

795 Ninth Avenue (Southwest corner of 53rd St. and 9th Av.)
